The members of the Monkey Wrench Puppet Lab are pleased to bring their special blend of puppet lunacy to Portland this February 19th. Monkey Wrench Puppet Lab will present a collection of their best professional pieces of puppet theatre.

Monkey Wrench will descend upon Portland's Winningstad Theatre, hot on the heels of a sold out run of Drunk Puppet Nite in Seattle's Re-Bar. Among the selections they will bring are: "Henry Box Brown," the true story of an American slave who mails himself to freedom, "Barney and Betty Hill," the story of an alien abduction from the 1950's, "Eat," a love story with a horrific ending, "Homage a Lola Flores," an exquisite flamenco performance, "The Sexual Life of Plants," "We all Fall Down" and "Primitive Instincts." These performances are sometimes dark, crude, lewd, occasionally silly, and will haunt and entertain adult audiences who are brave enough to attend.
